SHORT PRESENTATION OF THE NEW DIGITAL : UP

UNIVERSITY OF PRIMORSKA
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

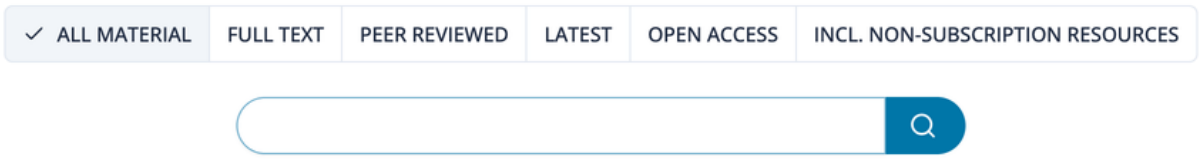

DIGITAL : UP

Digital : UP is a search tool for the information resources of the University of Primorska and several million subscription-based and open access records from global publishers and other providers of scientific information. For each search result, basic data about the source is provided. Results from COBISS are also included, which the user can choose to exclude from their search.

On the landing page, the user can choose from quick filters such as All Material, Full Text, Peer Reviewed, Latest, Open Access, and Incl. Non-Subscription Resources.

Example: Inclusion of the quick filter Latest

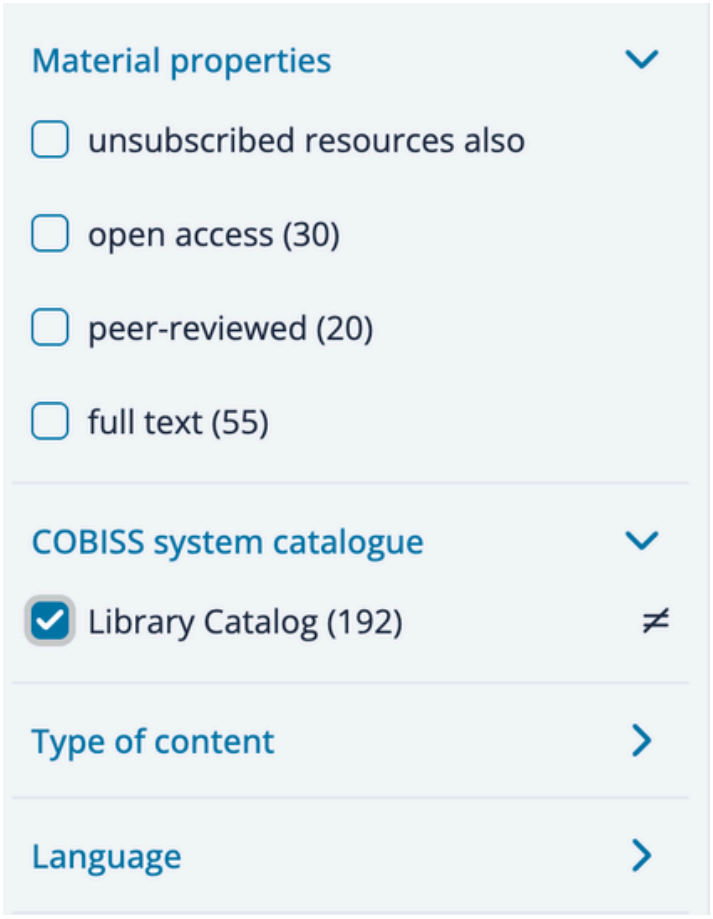

Apply the filter before performing the search, enter your search query, and click the Search button:

On the search results page, you can further refine your search on the left side (e.g., by content type, language, discipline, etc.).

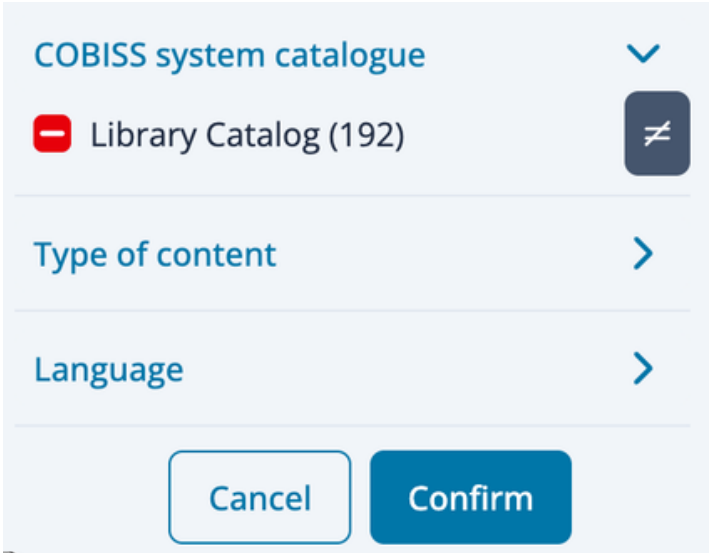

On the left side, you can also exclude COBISS results from the search, as follows:

Choose Library Catalog:

Click on: ≠
